Continuing Education Credits

Educational Credits are now available through partnerships with Cal State University Monterey Bay and Chapman College. These credits are available for full webinar attendance of those webinars presented beginning March 31, 2009. For a list of the previous webinars, click here.

In order to receive these credits, you must do the following:

- 1) Enroll in the program of your choice (Monterey or Chapman). Web site links are found below.
- 2) Send a request to flobosco@glazierclinics.com for a Certificate of Completion for each individual webinar you have attended since March 31. You must include the specific webinar name for each webinar you have attended, and for which you are requesting credit. Once your attendance is validated, the Certificate of Completion will be sent to you via email.
